6 Competition Format

6.1 Entry Standards

The selection of athletes will be made during the five Area/Continental Youth Championships/Qualifying Competitions in April–May 2014.

540 athletes will be selected on the basis of their performances achieved at the Area/Continental Championships.

6.2 Progression of Competition

100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, 100m/110m Hurdles, 400m Hurdles, 2000m Steeplechase, Relay – there will be two rounds – Round 1 and Finals.

All Field Events will have two rounds – Qualification and Finals.

Race Walks will be straight finals.

6.3 Differences Between the IAAF World Youth Championships and the Youth Olympic Games

There are differences between the IAAF World Youth Championships and the Youth Olympic Games. The main difference lies in the format of the competition.

The competition at the Youth Olympic Games is still governed by the Rules of the IAAF.

7 Competition Rules & Procedures

7.1 Track Events – 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, 3000m, 100/110mH, 400mH, 2000mSC,

There will be two rounds for each event; Round 1/Qualification will be held in Stage 1 and Finals will be held in Stage 2.

In all events, one, two or three heats (or more, if necessary) will be arranged in Round 1 depending on the final number of entries. From results achieved in Round 1, athletes will be placed in A, B or C (or additional) Finals, in accordance with procedures to be determined by the Event Delegate.

Final placings in each discipline will be determined by the placings in the Final with the top placings determined from the A Final and subsequent placings determined from the B Final, C Final, etc.

7.2 Track Events – Race Walk

The Race Walking events will be conducted as straight Finals. The new IAAF “pit lane rule” will be implemented to reduce disqualifications. The application of this rule will be carefully explained at the Technical Meeting.

7.3 Field Events – High Jump, Pole Vault, Long Jump, Triple Jump, Shot Put, Discus Throw, Hammer Throw, Javelin Throw

There will be two rounds for each event; a Qualification Round to be held in Stage 1 and a Final to be held in Stage 2. From the results achieved in the Qualification Round, athletes will be placed in an A or B Final.

Final placings in each discipline will be determined by the placings in the Final with the top placings determined from the A Final and subsequent placings determined from the B Final.

In both the Qualification Round and Finals of all field events, except for Pole Vault and High Jump, all athletes will receive four trials.

In Pole Vault and High Jump, normal IAAF Rules will apply.

7.4 8x100m Mixed Team Relay

The YOG 8x100m Relay will be conducted in two stages: In Round 1 Heats all athletes shall be expected to compete in the Relay. There will be 9 heats with the top 9 fastest teams from all heats advancing to the Final.

7.5 Protests and Appeals

Protests are possible and shall be resolved under the IAAF Rule 146. Protests concerning an athlete’s status to participate in the Youth Olympic Games must be made, prior to the commencement of the meeting, to the IOC. There shall be a right of appeal to the Jury of Appeal on the decision of the IOC.

An appeal to the Jury of Appeal must be made within 30 minutes of the official announcement of the decision made by the Referee. It must be in writing signed by the responsible official on behalf of the athlete, and shall be accompanied by a deposit of US$100, (RMB625) which will be forfeited if the appeal is not upheld. All appeals must be lodged at the competition venue. All appeals will be immediately forwarded to the Secretary of the Jury of Appeal.

7.6 Description of Facility

Track events take place on a 400m, 9 lane synthetic track.

The heights of the hurdles are as follows:

Events	Height
100m Girls	0.762m
110m Boys	0.914m
400m Girls	0.762m
400m Boys	0.838m

For the 2000m Steeplechase there are five hurdles on the track, 0.914m high for Boys and 0.762m high for Girls. The 4th hurdle is the “water jump” .

7.7 Disqualification

According to IAAF Rules, disqualifications are possible in several situations.

For Track Events the most common cases are:

- a. false start
- b. lane infringement (200m, 400m)
- c. hurdle fault (missing hurdle, trailing leg, deliberately knocking down hurdle)
- d. passing the relay baton outside the takeover zone

For events not conducted in lanes, jostling and obstruction are the most common cases.

Disqualifications in Field Events are very uncommon but can occur.

8 Equipment & Clothing

Equipment used or clothing worn by athletes and other participants at the Youth Olympic Games Athletics competition must comply with the IAAF Constitution and Technical Rules and with the Bye–Law to Rule 50 of the Olympic Charter.

8.2 Personal Implements

NYGOC will provide implements accordance with IAAF rules. Under the IAAF Rules 187.2, personal implements will also be allowed provided that they adhere to the following:

- They are readily identifiable and IAAF certified.
- They are not on the Official Implements List.
- They have been checked for compliance with IAAF Rules.
- They are made available to all other athletes until the end of the Final of the respective event.

The athletes shall, one day prior to the competition (9:00am to 12:00am), submit such equipment to the self-provide equipment room in the Nanjing Olympic Sports Center. If the equipment conforms to requirements, it will be kept by the Athletics Organizing Committee until the competition finishes. All athletes can use the equipment during the competition, but not during training.

30 minutes after the competitions finished, athletes can take their equipment back from the self-equipment room at warm-up area.

8.2.1. Transportation of self-provided equipment

Transportation of vaulting poles

Airport (Nanjing Lukou Airport)

vaulting pole will be transported by appointed vehicle, both ends of the package must give clear indication of the athlete's name, gender and nation. Organizing Committee will transport the vaulting pole to the equipment room in warm-up area.

Railway Station

Organizing Committee should be informed in advance if the vaulting poles are transported to the railway station. Both ends of the package must give clear indication of the athlete's name, gender and nation. Organizing Committee will transport the vaulting pole to the equipment room in warm-up area.

Competition Day: competition staff will ship the vaulting pole to the venue on the day of competition, and bring it back to the equipment room after competition.

Departure: All vaulting poles will be deposited in the self-equipment room at Sports Center. If vaulting poles need to be shipped, Organizing Committee should be informed in the afternoon one day earlier (2:00pm to 6:00pm), and the delivery location (airport or railway station) must be confirmed.

9 Doping Control

The Nanjing 2014 Anti-doping team will plan and implement the YOG Doping Control Programme in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code, IOC Anti-Doping Rules and other related international standards.

The Doping Control Programme will specify the anti-doping activities to be conducted during the Games-time, including notification procedures, sample collection, storage and transport to the laboratory of China Anti-Doping Agency accredited by WADA.

The Programme is aimed at maintaining the dignity of the Olympic Movement and protecting athletes' fundamental right to participate in clean sports, so as to promote the health, justice and equality of athletes in sports events.

The test biological specimens, including urine and blood samples, will be collected from selected athletes from the date of YOV official opening to the date of the Closing Ceremony of Nanjing 2014 (12 August to 28 August 2014). All samples will be sent to the laboratory of China Anti-Doping Agency for analysis.
